JULY 2013 UPDATE

Emory University Human Resources Announces the HR Hiring Boot Camp

HR's Data Services, in collaboration with Recruiting and Emory Temporary Services (ETS), will host a Hiring Boot Camp!

Wednesday, August 7th
9:00 am to 5:00 pm
Location: TBD

Open to all HR Reps, HR Staff, and anyone involved in the hiring of faculty, staff and students for Emory University.

Sessions:
- Opening Session: What every HR Rep needs to know for this fall
- Keys to a successful new hire/Federal work study
- Faculty Hires
- Bringing the world to Emory and maintaining work authorization
- Getting the most from Brass Ring
- Benefits Eligibility for all
- Closing session: Ask the experts

A continental breakfast and snacks will be provided (sponsored by EOP). Attendees responsible for their own lunch.

Registration is required and space is limited. Go to: ELMS to register: https://elmprod.emory.edu/psp/elmprod/?cmd=login – click on “Browse catalog” >> then click on “Data Services.” Additional sessions will be added soon.

Finance Matters Workshops Return in Fall 2013

The Emory WorkLife Resource Center’s workshop series, Finance Matters, is specifically designed to educate Emory employees on topics related to personal finances by fostering an understanding of money management principles. Learn more.

Changes to State of Georgia’s G-4 Form Could Affect Your Paycheck

The State of Georgia is making changes to its Form G-4 (Employee’s Withholding Allowance Certificate), reducing the number of withholding allowances permitted. Learn more.

Changes to Performance Management for FY2014

A new Performance Management System is coming to Emory University for FY2014 (for the evaluation period of Sept. 1, 2013-Aug. 30, 2014). This fall, HR will offer a series of training sessions for both managers and employees to further the understanding of the new competencies and ratings. Read more.

Lifestyle Coach is Employee Benefit
Benefits-eligible Emory employees can participate in a free health coaching program from Aetna, working one-on-one with a coach over the telephone to improve their health and make positive changes. Read more.

Emory Healthcare Services for Emory Employees
As Emory employees, we not only have access to a world-class health system right here in our own backyard, but we also have the benefit of specialized Emory Healthcare programs designed specifically for us. Learn more about these EHC programs and how you can take advantage of these special benefits.

Career MPH Program
A Career MPH Program (distance-based program for working professionals) Special Standing Students Information Session will be held Friday, July 19, 2013, 12:00-1:30 pm, Grace Crum Rollins Building in the Rita Anne Rollins Room, 8th floor. For questions about the Career MPH program, contact cmph@emory.edu or 404-727-9489. View program flyer.

Workshop Available for Nursing Mothers
Emory’s Center for Women announces a new workshop centered around nursing at Grady Hospital, Thursday, July 25, 12 p.m. in Grady Memorial Room, Faculty Office Building 101. View workshop flyer.

10% Discount to Emory Continuing Education
Did you know that as an Emory faculty or staff member, you receive a 10% discount at Emory Continuing Education? Just use your special promo code “EAGLE12” to receive the discount. For upcoming courses this summer, click here.