Emory HR Representatives Meeting
March 12, 2012
About Us

- Established in 2001 and supported by the Provost’s Office and the Faculty Council since inception

- Organizational Structure: Staff & Executive Committee

- Vision: The EUEC is an association of Emory University's retired faculty and administrative staff who have joined together to advance their intellectual interests, to serve the University, and to maintain social contact with University colleagues.

- Mission: Emeritus College's purposes are achieved through discussion, lectures, service projects, support for ongoing research and recognition of the achievements of its members
Objectives

1. Recognizing and celebrating distinguished careers
2. Providing information to retired faculty
3. Utilizing skills in service to the University and community
4. Engaging with the University
Membership

Publications

Newsletter is distributed semi-annually to all with hard copies made available to members upon request.

Monthly Announcements includes member news, EUEC event notices, and University events selected as potential interest to our constituents.

Website serves as the EUEC’s online brochure. It is synced with monthly announcements. The long-term goal is to use the website to further member engagement, e.g., via a photo journal.

How can you help?

Let us know about new retirees!

Distribute Steps to Retirement and EUEC’s program brochure to prospective retirees!

Let us know about events happening in your department or University unit 1. so EUEC members may be involved and 2. so that we can cross promote!
