MARCH 2013 UPDATE

Award of Distinction Celebrates Exceptional Employees
Twelve employees have been honored with the Emory University Award of Distinction. Honorees were recognized at a dinner on March 18 with President James Wagner and received a $1,000 award. Each year, the award recognizes members of the Emory community who have demonstrated exceptional dedication to their jobs. Read about the 2013 honorees.

2012 Benefit Statements
Please be aware that 2012 Benefit Statements are being mailed to the home addresses of all non-physician faculty and staff. These statements reflect earnings and benefits as of 12/31/2012 and provide an overview of total compensation. Questions should be referred to the benefits department at 404-727-7613.

Complete Your Online Health Assessment to Earn Your Incentive
Remember, in order to receive your medical plan incentive, you must complete BOTH a health screening AND an online health assessment. For more information about the online health assessment, click here.

Join the Spring Walking Challenge to Improve your Health
The Faculty Staff Assistance Program announces the Spring Walking Challenge. This challenge encourages Emory faculty and staff to get 150+ minutes of physical activity each week for five weeks, and gives you a chance to win prizes too! This program kicks off on National Walking Day, Wednesday, April 3, 2013 and ends on Tuesday, May 7, 2013. If you participated in the recent onsite health screenings or completed your online health assessment, you may have been encouraged to begin or maintain an exercise routine. Regular physical activity helps many aspects of your personal health and wellness including lowering total cholesterol, controlling blood pressure and maintaining a healthy weight. For more information about the Challenge or National Walking Day events, go to http://fsap.emory.edu/health/caregiver/Spring%20Walking%20Challenge.html.

Selecting & Evaluating Quality Child Care Workshop – April 11, 2013
The Emory WorkLife Resource Center will be hosting Selecting & Evaluating Quality Child Care to help new and expecting parents become familiar with the different types of child care available in the metro Atlanta area and help them evaluate what constitutes quality care. Due to the high demand for child care in the Emory area, the seminar will also provide parents with some creative options for when their first choice is not obtainable. Register Now.
