DECEMBER 2015 UPDATE

Emory Employees Walk One Million Miles in Move More Challenge
More than 6,000 Emory University and Emory Healthcare employees donned Fitbits for eight weeks to participate in the Move More Challenge. Read more.

New Requirements for Filing Your 2015 Taxes
Changes for filing your 2015 taxes go into effect as a result of the Affordable Care Act (ACA). One of these changes is the individual mandate which requires that you have health care coverage or potentially face a fine. If you are an Emory University employee who is eligible for health care coverage, you will receive a new tax form, Form 1095-C, in addition to your W-2 Form, which serves as documentation of your eligibility for health care coverage. You should sign up now to get both your W-2 Form and your 1095-C Form online as this is the most secure, efficient way to get your tax forms. Learn more.

Announcing Emergency Back-up Care: A New Benefit
Beginning on January 1, 2016, benefits-eligible faculty and staff (along with students in the Laney Graduate School) will have access to Emergency Back-Up Care through a new partnership with Bright Horizons, a nationally known leader in child care. When you need to be at work, but experience an unexpected breakdown in your routine childcare or adult/elder care arrangement, Emergency Back-Up Care can provide quick access to secure, temporary caregiving services. The Emory WorkLife Resource Center is offering a series of in-person workshops and webinars to explain the benefit and how it works.

- Register for a workshop or webinar

New Childcare Centers in the Emory Child Care Network
The Emory WorkLife Resource Center announces that two new centers have joined the Emory Child Care Network: Knowledge Universe and The Frazer Center. The Emory Child Care Network helps you meet the diverse demands and challenges of looking for child care by providing parents with discounts and priority admissions at licensed child care centers throughout Metro Atlanta. Read more.

Remember Emory Caregiver Support Over the Holidays
As you spend time with your family over the holidays remember the Emory Caregiver Support Program is here to connect you with support and services. Learn more.

BrownRichards is Now e4Health
BrownRichards & Associates, Emory’s work-life resource and referral vendor for nearly two decades, will be changing its name officially in January as the company has been sold to an established company, e4Health. Read more.
Winter Sports Camp at Emory University
Emory Total Sports Academy is happy to announce that we will be running multiple indoor camp sessions in December & January for kids 4-17 years old. Holiday season can be a hectic time of the year with little chance for your kids to blow off steam. Well, we have just the right program to make sure your kids stay active through the holiday season!

- Session 1 Dates: December: 21, 22, 23, 24 9:00 am-4:00 pm
- Session 2 Dates: December: 28, 29, 30, 31 9:00 am-4:00 pm

We will offer before care: 8:00 am-9:00 am & After care: 4:00-5:00 pm. For more information, please visit: http://totalsportsacademy.com.

Flu Vaccinations
It’s time to get a flu shot. The 2015-2016 vaccine will protect against three different flu virus strains: influenza A (H1N1) virus, influenza A (H3N2) virus, and influenza B virus. In order to be protected against seasonal influenza, you must get a flu shot each and every year. Emory Faculty and staff who are on the Emory medical plan (and their covered dependents) can receive a free flu vaccine. Learn more.

Goddard School to Host Open House
The Goddard School Decatur will host an open house on Wednesday, December 9, 2015 at 10 a.m. See the attached flier for more details.