JUNE 2013 UPDATE

Next HR Rep Meeting
The next HR Rep Meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, June 18 in the Winship Ballroom, DUC. Be sure to attend this meeting for FY14 Compensation Planning information and much more!

Use Self-Service to Report Workplace Injury
Occupational Injury Management announces that all workplace accidents, injuries, illnesses or exposures can now be reported using Self-Service (PeopleSoft).

Benefits Reminders
Important reminders about your benefits: Incentives, Beneficiary Designation, and Retirement Plan Fee Disclosure Notices. Understand your benefits coverage, utilize the resources available to you, and take advantage of the programs Emory offers.

Emory Adopts New Policies
Emory has recently adopted two new policies aimed at protecting the safety and well-being of children on campus, and maintaining the integrity of its financial statements, financial reporting processes, and internal controls.

Summer Fruit and Veggie Challenge
Challenge yourself to increase your intake of fruits and vegetables and improve your health and wellness at the same time! This 4-week challenge runs from June 24 - July 21 and is open to all Emory University and Healthcare employees.

HR Hiring Boot Camp Successful
More than 70 HR Reps attended Employment and Data Services’ Hiring Boot Camp held on May 15th at the Gozuieta Business School. Topics ranged from completing the newly issued Form I9 to getting the most from Emory’s Recruiting System. Presentations from the Hiring Boot Camp can be viewed online.

Employees Share Their Favorite Things About Emory
At Staff Fest 2013, the Emory News Center team invited employees to answer questions about their work-life experience at Emory.