

EMORY
UNIVERSITY

Emeritus College

Retirement Seminar Series

2012-2013

The Self in Retirement

Psychological Issues Retirees Face

Tuesday, February 12, 2013

4:30 – 6:00 p.m.

Goizueta Business School | Room 130

Panelists include: John Bugge (English),
Pat Douglass (Human Resources), Carl Hug (SOM, Anesthesiology), and Richard Ward (SOM, Psychiatry).

Licensed psychologist, Dr. Marilyn Lineberger of the Emory Faculty Staff Assistance Program will present prior to the panel.

Planning to attend? Call 404.712.8834 or email:
isha.edwards@emory.edu by February 5, 2013.

Coming Spring | Fall 2013!

Check HR's News You Can Use for details or visit: www.emory.edu/emeritus.

- Financial Planning

Money Management and retirement discussion.

- Winning the Endgame

Wills, estate planning, long-term care, health insurance, a living will, etc.

All Emory faculty and staff age 55 and older may attend any of the sessions.

Guests of faculty and staff are welcome!

ABOUT US: Emory University Emeritus College is an association of Emory University's retired faculty and administrative staff who have joined together to advance their intellectual interests, to serve the University, and to maintain social contact with University colleagues. Visit us online: www.emory.edu/emeritus.

