EXPLORE
Explore your career options at Emory University. Browse websites and social media sites and connect with others in your network to learn more about possible job opportunities at Emory. To find current open positions, go to www.hr.emory.edu and click on "Search Jobs."

STEP 2
APPLY
When you find a position that aligns with your interests AND you meet the minimum qualifications, then you should consider applying. Use our online system to create a profile and apply for the job. Note that the system will only hold one version of your resume and cover letter at a time.

STEP 3
1st REVIEW
When you submit your application, an Emory Recruiter will review it. If it is determined that your application does not meet the minimum qualifications and many times, the preferred skills as well, then your application will not move forward. Emory job openings are highly competitive!

STEP 4
2nd REVIEW
If your application meets the requirements, it will then be forwarded to the hiring department for review. During this stage, your online status will show as “Under Department Review.” If you are asked to provide additional information, be sure to respond in a timely manner.

STEP 5
INTERVIEW
If the department is interested in meeting with you, they will contact you to schedule an interview. The interview may be conducted in person or by phone. The number of interviews a department will schedule and how long this process takes varies by department and position.

STEP 6
PRE-EMPLOYMENT
If you sail through the interview process with flying colors, you will then be asked to provide 3-5 professional references. Some positions may also require a drug screen, health assessment and/or nicotine test. All Emory job offers are contingent on a clear background screening.

STEP 7
ONBOARDING
After successfully completing your pre-employment, you will need to complete various onboarding tasks to help you prepare for your arrival on campus. These tasks include taking care of administrative items and receiving an overview of Emory’s benefits.

STEP 8

The process above applies to Emory University, not Emory Healthcare. While both use the same job application system, they are separate entities and have different hiring processes.
