Consider taking a course at the Rollins School of Public Health, ranked #4 in the nation in public health.

Did you know your teen and college-age dependent can study at Emory this summer? Emory College of Arts and Sciences offers both credit and non-credit courses for high school students.

Summer Courses for Teens and College-age Dependents

https://president.emory.edu/race-social-justice/task-force/language-path.html

We begin to lead us in the engagement process toward the Path.

With the Native-led consulting firm Kauffman Associates, Inc. (KAI) who are assisting Emory in our efforts to better understand the impact of our work on the local and global communities. Please join us for open engagement sessions with the KAI team to discuss the process and next steps.

We will also be working with OSRL, MSA, GMSC, Emory Muslim Alumni, and several Emory Schools, divisions, and departments to develop physical reminders and rituals on Emory's Oxford and Atlanta campuses.

The Muslim month of Ramadan will span April 2-May 1, 2022. During this time, Emory's Muslim Students Association will organize daily iftar events in the Cannon Chapel with gathering at about 7:45 p.m., followed by prayer and dinner. Saturday and Sunday prayers and dinner will occur at the Emory Student Center. Weeknight iftars are hosted at the Emory Student Center and nearby restaurants. A set menu is offered, and additional options are available.

By utilizing digital tools and technology, we can create a platform to connect with students and faculty members around the world. This platform will allow us to share information, resources, and opportunities that can help support the growth of the global community.

By incorporating technology into our daily lives, we can create a more connected and engaged environment. This can be achieved through the use of digital tools, such as email and social media, which can help us stay in touch with our colleagues, friends, and family.

Communication in the digital age has become an essential aspect of our daily lives. By utilizing digital tools and technology, we can create a platform to connect with students and faculty members around the world. This platform will allow us to share information, resources, and opportunities that can help support the growth of the global community.

The overuse of digital devices has been linked to stress, burnout, insomnia, anxiety, and other mental health disorders. This thought-provoking and innovative seminar will provide practical solutions to help individuals and organizations better manage their digital presence.

Switching Off: Life Beyond Digital Device

April 5, 2022

The seminar will be held at the Center for Ethics and will focus on the importance of taking steps to unplug from technology. Attendees will learn about the benefits of digital detoxes and how to create a healthy balance between work and personal life.

The seminar will cover:

- The impact of digital overload on mental health
- Strategies for reducing screen time
- The benefits of disconnecting from technology
- How to implement a digital detox

The seminar will be led by Dr. Sarah Johnson, a renowned expert in digital health.

The seminar will be open to all members of the Emory community and is free to attend. Seating is limited, so please register in advance.

If you have any questions or concerns about the seminar, please contact the Center for Ethics at ethics@emory.edu.

Emory News Center

The FSAP is offering individual well-being check-ins for staff and faculty to gauge emotional health/coping and identify strategies to address stress.

Anxiety Toolbox

April 5, 2022

The Anxiety Toolbox seminar will provide participants with practical techniques and strategies for managing anxiety. The seminar will cover:

- Understanding the causes and symptoms of anxiety
- Mindfulness practices for reducing anxiety
- Cognitive behavioral therapy techniques
- Techniques for managing anxiety in daily life

The seminar will be led by Dr. Miranda Lee, a licensed psychologist.

The seminar will be open to all members of the Emory community and is free to attend. Seating is limited, so please register in advance.

If you have any questions or concerns about the seminar, please contact the Center for Ethics at ethics@emory.edu.

Emory News Center

Performance Management - Mid-Year Forms Due April 7

Update your goals and accomplishments for the first half of the year and complete your mid-year performance management forms. This is an opportunity to reflect on progress and set new targets for the remainder of the year.

The performance management process is an essential aspect of our professional development. It helps us identify areas for growth and improvement and ensures that we are aligned with our organization's goals and objectives.

The mid-year performance management forms will be due by April 7, 2022.

Please refer to the performance management policy for more information.

Emory News Center

Emory Alliance Federal Credit Union

Offers two six-week credit sessions for transient study.

Interested in taking your career in health care, public health or biomedical research to the next level? Earn your Master of Science in Public Health (MSPH) at Emory University.

Interested in learning more about the program? Contact us at mabioethics@emory.edu.

Emory News Center

2022 Summer Internship Program

As an intern at Emory, you will have the opportunity to apply your academic knowledge to real-world challenges and make a meaningful contribution to our mission.

The program runs from May 16 to August 19, 2022.

To apply, please visit the online application portal using course code 200833-19261.

Emory News Center

2022 Summer Camp and Learning Programs Spotlight

Weekly Refresh

Mindfulness Practice

April 4, 2022

The Office of WorkLife offers a weekly refresh series aimed at helping employees find balance in their personal and professional lives.

The Mindfulness Practice session will provide participants with techniques for reducing stress and increasing focus.

The session will be held at the Center for Ethics and will be led by Dr. Sarah Johnson, a renowned expert in digital health.

The session will be open to all members of the Emory community and is free to attend. Seating is limited, so please register in advance.

If you have any questions or concerns about the session, please contact the Center for Ethics at ethics@emory.edu.

Emory News Center

Let Blomeyer Health Fitness Center Help You Move More!

Connect with other single Emory employees for friendship, fun and learning. Rotating break-out rooms will provide opportunities to share your interests and meet new people. Small refreshments will be provided.

Single Mingle

April 7, 2022

The event will be held in the Blomeyer Health and Wellness Center and will be open to all members of the Emory community.

To register, please visit the online registration portal.

Emory News Center

Copyright © 2022 Emory University Human Resources - All Rights Reserved | 1599 Clifton Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30322 USA | 404.727.7611