Emory College of Arts and Sciences offers both credit and non-credit programs for summer study. These programs are designed to help students explore their interests, develop new skills, and gain valuable experience. Whether you're a current Emory student or a non-degree seeking transient student, there are options available for you.

Learn more at www.emory.edu/summer for a complete list of programs and course offerings.

News You Can Use

Move More: Spring 2022 Move More Challenge

Apply to the 2022 Move More Challenge to increase your physical activity and improve your health. This program encourages participants to move more by setting and achieving personal goals. The challenge kicks off on March 21 and runs through May 13. To participate, register here.

Q&A Form

Have a question about Emory's performance management process? Submit your question to HRIS@emory.edu. Your question will be answered by the HRIS team.

Emory Pride Employee Network Mixer

Join us for a mixer on March 22nd to celebrate Emory’s LGBTQ+ community. This event is for fellow LGBTQ+ faculty, staff, and allies. Refreshments will be provided. Free parking in Michael St. deck after 4 pm.

Performative Management - Mid-Year Forms Due April 7

Performance management forms are due April 7 for all performance management programs. This includes the Essentials of Leadership and Aspiring Leaders programs. Applications/Nominations for these programs are now available here.

Emory's Summer Internship Program

Emory's Summer Internship program offers college students who are in the middle of their academic careers a unique opportunity to gain hands-on experience in their field of interest. Learn more about how to get started and apply as a non-degree seeking transient student.

Did you know your teen and college-age dependent can study at Emory this summer? Emory College of Arts and Sciences offers both credit and non-credit programs for summer study. These programs are designed to help students explore their interests, develop new skills, and gain valuable experience. Whether you’re a current Emory student or a non-degree seeking transient student, there are options available for you.

Learn more at www.emory.edu/summer for a complete list of programs and course offerings.

Emory Pride Employee Network Mixer

Join us for a mixer on March 22nd to celebrate Emory’s LGBTQ+ community. This event is for fellow LGBTQ+ faculty, staff, and allies. Refreshments will be provided. Free parking in Michael St. deck after 4 pm.

Performative Management - Mid-Year Forms Due April 7

Performance management forms are due April 7 for all performance management programs. This includes the Essentials of Leadership and Aspiring Leaders programs. Applications/Nominations for these programs are now available here.

Emory's Summer Internship Program

Emory's Summer Internship program offers college students who are in the middle of their academic careers a unique opportunity to gain hands-on experience in their field of interest. Learn more about how to get started and apply as a non-degree seeking transient student.