Emory University offers a variety of workshops and seminars for faculty and staff, including intercultural communication and personal leadership workshops. Additionally, there are training courses available, such as the 3-month online Emory Management Training Program.

Managing people is one of the most difficult and complex things you can do in an organization. The new 3-month, online Emory Management Training Program is designed to help employees connect and learn from leaders within the Emory community. Space is limited, so register now to secure your spot.

Emory Celebrates Black History Month

To better align with Emory's values, a new competency for all employees will be introduced. This competency will cover aspects of the Black experience in America and beyond. The Emory community will come together on Wednesday, Feb. 15, at 12 p.m. in Cannon Chapel to share insights and experiences.

Shorts for your workday

If you have the Kaiser Plan, your incentives will be added to your Kaiser Permanente Health Reimbursement Arrangement (KP HRA) and distributed as eligible expenses. If you have the POS Plan, you will get a credit toward your deductible or co-insurance. You can use your remaining funds until May 15, 2023.

Medical plan incentives

Emory’s Medical plan incentives are designed to reward healthy behaviors. Medical plan incentives are earned through eligible expenses, either through waived claims or claims paid by Emory. You can also use their convenient CVS shopping cart.

Estate planning

Estate planning can seem overwhelming and complex. Join us for this session to learn more. Facilitated by Del King, Vice President of Career Planning and Strategy.
