

1. Emory has a monument donated by eccentric entrepreneur Roger Babson. What is the name given to this monument? The Gravity Monument
  - a. Bonus:
    - i. Where is it located? The Math and Science Courtyard
  - b. Bonus:
    - i. The monument is made from what material? Pink Marble

2. The University _____ is carried in the commencement procession each year. Some of its distinguishing features include: a human skeleton representing Dooley, the Spirit of Emory; a gold sphere divided into eight segments; a simple cross, representing the university's relationship to the United Methodist Church; the seal of the university in gold. Complete the blank. Mace
  - a. Bonus:
    - i. Who carries this item in the commencement procession? The immediate past president of the student government

3. Popular to many universities, this is the alliterative mascot for athletics at Emory. What is the mascot? Eagles
  - a. Bonus:
    - i. Provide the Emory mascot's name for a bonus point. Swoop
  - b. Bonus:
    - i. Emory has #____ varsity athletic teams that participate at the Division III level. 19 varsity teams

4. Emory has seven graduate and professional schools, which include the following: Goizueta Business School, Laney Graduate School, School of Law, School of Medicine, Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing, Candler School of Theology. But wait, that's only six. Which school was left from the list? Rollins School of Public Health
  - a. Bonus:
    - i. There are also four undergraduate colleges at Emory University. Which is missing from the list? Emory College of Arts and Sciences, Oxford College, Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing. Goizueta Business School

5. From 1962-1963, the Emory president's office was filled by a group of three individuals who jointly ran the University. They were called _____? The Troika

6. The Alma Mater graces every Commencement ceremony, closes every Legacy Brunch and rings from the bell tower on Cox Hall every day at noon. The first line is written as, "In the heart of dear old _____." Complete the first line from the Alma Mater. Emory
  - a. Bonus:
    - i. What year did Emory conduct its first commencement with students? 1841

7. Emory commencement is steeped in tradition. Bachelor-degree graduates wear cap, gown and tassel. Master-degree graduates wear cap, gown, hood and tassel. All gowns are black except Emory's custom PhD robes, which are Emory blue and gold. Which color is traditionally designated for an earned degree in Theology? Red

8. This individual resided as Emory president from 1875-1884. His famous saying, "Let us stand by what is good and ..."
What is the president's last name? Haygood
  - a. Bonus:
    - i. Where is this quote located on campus? Haygood-Hopkins Gate
9. On May 4, Jericho Brown, Emory's Winship Distinguished Research Professor in Creative Writing, won the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry for his latest collection. What was the name of his collection? The Tradition
10. Today, Emory University houses one of only seven National Institutes of Health-funded National Primate Research Center (NPRC) programs. The center has more than 3,000 nonhuman primates (rhesus macaques, sooty mangabeys, squirrel monkeys, cynomolgus monkeys and chimpanzees) and approximately 7,500 rodents (mice, voles and rats), is a part of the Robert W. Woodruff Health Sciences Center (WHSC) of Emory University. What is the name of the primate research center at Emory? Yerkes Primate Center
  - a. Bonus:
    - i. From what university did Emory assume ownership of the primate research center? Yale University
11. Emory got its start at the university's campus in this town about 40 miles east of Atlanta. When Georgia Methodists founded Emory College in 1836, they also created a town and named it in honor of the British university that educated Methodism's founder, John Wesley. What is the name of the town? Oxford
12. Dooley represents a quirky tradition on campus. Taking on the first name and middle initial of the current university president, the biology lab skeleton safeguards the official "Spirit of Emory." What is the middle initial of Dooley as it currently stands? E. (Claire E. Sterk)
13. This is the current campus-wide initiative intended to help grow Emory's recognition around the world as a leading research university that fosters excellence and attracts world-class talent to innovate today and prepare leaders for the future. What is the name of the initiative? One Emory: Engaged for Impact
  - a. Bonus:
    - i. The University initiative will run until what year? 2028

FINAL: Your answers for each numbered item should all begin with the letters contained in the phrase, "THEORY TO MERGE." Unscramble this phrased "clue" to form another common phrase that you see in University update email communications. Provide your answer. "EMORY TOGETHER"